

Autumn Newsletter 2018

Hi Plastic lovers out there. Now that the weather has cooled down and the holiday season is almost over, now is a good time to start thinking about stocking up your PVC collection and even maybe think about buying the missus a new PVC Outfit!

During the holiday period we have stocked up our “off the shelf” selection and we have a large delivery planned for the end of October just in time for Christmas, Arrgghh, sorry I mentioned Christmas but every year sales ramp up crazy towards the end of the year and every year I give everyone notice and every year some people leave it too late for Dec 25th delivery so start planning now! This year we are not going to give a cut off date but make sure you leave at least 21 days production time when we are busy.

At PUL we have an obsession with trying out every connotation of Plastic whether it be colours, thickness, softness, shiny, glass, semi trans etc and now my warehouse manager has said enough is enough! So even though I’m trying to cut down on colours sometimes the Plastic gods are at work and we end up with something new by chance. I have just ordered our popular NAT1 semi Trans Natural PVC and some Semi Trans Yellow YET2 and unfortunately the materials were manufactured much too soft! So rather than dispose of this material I have accepted it because I know some of you like your PVC as soft as possible so these two mega soft materials now have their own code NAT11 for the semi trans natural and YET5 for the semi trans yellow, due for delivery mid October. I have re-ordered the NAT1 but no more Semi Trans Yellow (we haven’t got the room!) These materials will arrive late October just in time for a Christmas surprise! After an outcry from one of our wholesalers we have also re-ordered the Nursery print Yellow (YEM2) and surprise surprise Baby blue with Nursery print (BLM3) both these materials will be delivered early November. Getting back to the lack of warehouse space please note that these materials when finished are not due to be replaced you have been warned! BKS9, BLP2, BLT7, GRT5, MAS1, NAT3, NAT5, REP1 and YET2.

Do you dream about seeing the ladies wearing PVC on the high streets again just like they did in the 1960’s? The good news is that PVC has certainly been in vogue this year with a splattering of designs in New Look, Primark and Topshop but unfortunately this is seasonal and dependant on whether “PVC” is in fashion at the moment. However at Elements Rainwear our sister company they have been making some good traction into the Vintage and Retro sectors and our “Ruby” coat has definitely hit all the right buttons because it has been very popular especially in America and Australia! So hopefully you will see these raincoats on a high street near you! PVC is in fashion at the moment so the time might be right to persuade the Missus that she needs to be on trend and buy her a nice new Mac!

Another major project which has just started is a new website for PUL. Our site is a bit dated now and the language it was written in is old news as well. The new site will have enhanced security features and will be totally mobile device friendly so you can shop for plastic on the go! Hopefully this will be live before the end of the year.
